President's Report – Silvia Stade

- The Winter Sports awards program was held on March 11.
- Our Winter Sports season was successful, and we are looking forward to an equally successful spring season.

Treasurer's Report – Tom Connor

- Tom asked the Directors to ensure that Coaches and Sponsors funnel all requests for bill payment through the Directors. When Tom receives requests directly from the Coaches, he has no idea if the Individual Activity Groups have approved these expenses. If Tom does receive requests directly from the Coaches, he asked that this be preceded by an email from the Director approving the expense.
- The relationship with Chicago Street Pizza is proceeding well. Tom asked the Individual Activity Groups to let him know what has been ordered so that he can reconcile the monthly bills received from Chicago Street.

Athletic Director's Report – Dan Kallenbach

- BHS will be hosting the Varsity Conference Track Meet on Thursday, May 5th.

- Dance results can be found on the Dance Spirit web site at <http://www.bhsdancespirit.com>

Wrestling – Lois Pastor

- This year Wrestling had eight athletes place at Regionals and Josh Pastor qualified for the State Meet.

New Business

- Applications for the Booster Club Scholarship, and ALL scholarships, are available in the Guidance Office.
- The Varsity Awards Dinner will be held on May 27th at the Seville. Varsity athletes should expect their invitations in the mail.
- Ed State said that the Ways and Means committee will begin to look at accomplishment banners for the gym.
