Athletic Director's or Principal's Report- Jeff Bral

- Thank you to everyone for continuing to help out
- Principal Demovsky received a letter requesting that Jeff Bral be fired. Jeff has devoted 23 years to Bartlett High School and is here for the students. Of course there are challenges in any position.

Just of a few of the ongoing challenges at BHS:

- Finding coaches- Bral is looking for the best coaches for the kids w/in the parameters set by the district. Just filled the girls bb head coaching position.
- Need a coach for Lacrosse Boys/Girls, Girls Track, Boys Track
- Finding Officials (Soccer & Chain gang for Football- Thank you to Football Boosters for helping out)
- Scheduling issues for activities, events
- Things outside of BHS control (shortage of workers)

Other News

- Swim/dive - working on getting a dive board installed.
- Girls Tennis- congratulations to Jessie Popiol as she advances to State
- Cheer - Safety helmets were ordered. Tryouts for competition season is soon
- Girls Wrestling is now a State sport, we currently have a boys wrestling team.
- Cross Country - upstate 8 meet was this past weekend, Flying Hawk Meet (45 teams) and Middle school meet all held at BHS. Logos on the path were super cool.
- Indoor Band Show this Wednesday
- Bowling season has started

Friendly reminders

- Currently NO indoor volunteers allowed in the High School
- Currently NO indoor concession stand
- Currently NO team (pasta) dinners to be held at the HS
- EOY award banquets can not be held at BHS
- BHS will be shut this winter thru the Holiday for improvements
- Currently, no attendance restrictions for indoor games

Things to look out for

- Hudl cameras coming for gym & stadium
- Purchased a new Scoring table
- Working on Softball batting cage, softball & baseball scoreboards and soccer shelter bench, pixalot camera

Craft Fair was last Saturday, October 15th in the parking lot by the old TJ Maxx

Thank you for Homecoming week. It was a great week.

****Send any disgruntled parents Jeff's way****
